

RATANUI LODGE, GOLDEN BAY

Ratanui Lodge is in the heart of Pohara, Golden Bay on the north-western tip of the South Island. The beachside location makes Ratanui the perfect destination for a relaxing and refreshing break away and ideal as the final stop for those walking the Abel Tasman Coastal Track.

Ratanui was refurbished in late 2021 and is contemporary, stylish, and comfortable and includes a welcoming restaurant and lounge bar which is open to the public for brunch, lunch, cocktails and dinner.

The Lodge has a small saltwater pool and Pohara beach is just across the road. Explore the artist galleries in Takaka and beyond as well as a number of creative and boutique food and beverage producers in the region. The Lodge is located near some of the regions icons such as the Abel Tasman National Park and is within easy driving distance of some of Golden Bay's stunning natural attractions such as Te Waikoropupu Springs, Wainui Falls and World Heritage site Farewell Spit.

Ratanui Lodge Closes between May and September each year. Exclusive Group bookings are available on request and subject to availability.
