

THEATRE ROYAL HOTEL, WESTLAND

VICTORIAN ELEGANCE IN THE HEART OF HISTORIC KUMARA

The Theatre Royal Hotel is the West Coast's only restored miners' hotel, and once world-renowned theatre. This lovingly restored gold rush Hotel features six themed ensuite rooms in the main hotel. Each room is unique, with its blend of Victorian decor, antique furnishings, yet with all modern amenities. Additional cottage accommodation including 6 Miners Cottages built in 2017, is located on the hotel grounds and in the village.

The West Coast Wilderness Trail

The Theatre Royal Hotel is perfectly located on the West Coast Wilderness cycle trail; with a purpose built bike storage shed and hearty meals for the weary cyclist we welcome cycle individuals and groups year round.

KUMARA

Kumara is a small village of approximately 350 people famed for its Gold Rush history and warm West Coast welcome. It is situated on the stunning Great Alpine Highway; this world renowned voyage delights visitors as they drive from Christchurch to Westland. All types of fishing are close by including Mitchells on Lake Brunner, famous for its trout fishing, boating and walks. Only a five minute drive from Kumara Beach there are spectacular views down to Mt Cook on a clear day. Kumara is proud to have many walkways leading from the village. Enjoy views of the mountains, river valleys, bush and old gold tailings whilst away from traffic.
